Does Find/Replace have a problem with lookarounds?

Although the term is matched correctly, the "Replace with" string seems to have been ignored even though a replacement was made (the segment status has changed, but the target string remains unchanged.

RegexBuddy and RegexHero have no problem

Segment status changed, but the target string remains unchanged

Without the lookahead, the replace is performed correctly